Patient Reported Outcome Measures

Thursday 26 May 2016 09:00 – 10:30

Chaired by Professor John Sparrow,
Consultant Ophthalmologist & Honorary Professor of Ophthalmic Health Services Research and Applied Epidemiology, Bristol Eye Hospital

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 09.00-09.05 | Introduction
Professor John Sparrow, Consultant Ophthalmologist, Bristol Eye Hospital |
| 09.05-09.20 | What should a PROM be measuring and how does it work?
Mr Andy Frost, Consultant Ophthalmologist, Torbay Hospital, Torquay |
| 09.20-09.35 | An NHS Cataract PROM?
Professor John Sparrow, Consultant Ophthalmologist, Bristol Eye Hospital |
| 09.35-09.50 | An NHS ARM PROM?
Dr Thomas Kelley, Europe Director, International Consortium for Health Outcomes Measurement (ICHOM) |
| 09.50-10.05 | An NHS Glaucoma PROM / PREM?
Mr John Somner, Clinical Research Fellow, Anglia Ruskin University, Cambridge |
| 10.05-10.20 | NHS PROMs for Paediatric Ophthalmology: Opportunities and challenges
Dr Val Tadic, Research Associate, Institute of Child Health, University College London |
| 10.20-10.30 | Questions and Discussion |